Our Mission: Strong Relationships Growing Healthy Minds To Go Beyond

Dear parents,

As part of our celebration of diversity for Buckingham Elementary School's Inclusion Week, we have two take-home activities that you can do with your children. We are very lucky to have a wide array of cultures represented in the families of our school. Inclusion Week offers an exciting opportunity to learn more about these cultures. Here are two ways you and your family can be involved:

1. Submit a family recipe to your child's homeroom teacher for the Buckingham Elementary School Cookbook. Recipes will be compiled into a book that will be available for purchase shortly after inclusion week.
2. Have a family conversation about your family's culture, using the attached "What's in a name? Take-Home Assignment". Students will be provided with an opportunity in class to share what they learned about their names and cultures, if they wish.
